

September 2011

Dear Middle School Parents,

We hope that you have had a smooth transition back to school. As Middle School Head Parents, we are representatives for the Parents' Association of Columbus Academy ("PACA"). One of our goals this year is to assist with timely communication between and among parents and the administration. Since many of you are new to the middle school, we thought it might be helpful to describe the roles of the members of the Middle School Parent Leadership team.
